

Asset

- A resource owned by a person or company that has economic value, such as a house or car.

Balance sheet

- a statement that displays the financial condition of a company, individual, or organization.

Cash Flow

- the amount of money that is going in and out of an organization

Capital

- wealth, money that is used to improve the company's profit or other purposes

Credit score

- a number given to let the lender judge your ability to repay a loan.

Equity

- the amount of money that owners or shareholders of a company would receive if all assets were sold off and all debt was paid.

Expenditure

- the amount of money spent by a company

Income statement

- a statement that displays a company or individual's revenue, expense, and profit in an indicated time range.

Interest

- the additional money paid for the money you borrowed.

Investing

- expend money with the expectation of achieving a profit or material result by putting it into financial plans, shares, or property, or by using it to develop a commercial venture.

Liability

- debt that a person or company owes

Net worth

- The difference between a person's or company's assets and liabilities.

Shareholder

- someone who owns a share or stock of the company

Work Cited

- "What Is Finance? - 2021." Robinhood, 8 Aug. 2021, learn.robinhood.com/articles/5sCpX8sMV5KMRaGhYBe2UK/what-is-finance/#Personal_finance. Accessed 25 Nov. 2021.
- Reference Dictionary.com